Cruise Dubrovnik 8 days

Day 1:

Sunday. Hail Croatia and welcome aboard! The stunning walled city of Dubrovnik is a true treasure. The cobbled old city streets resemble a jumble of tangled shoelaces filled with cute cafes, restaurants, ice cream parlours, souvenirs and curios. The compact city is full of colour and life and many a while can be spent watching the local traders go about their day.

Your boat will be ready for embarkation/check in at the DUBROVNIK (GRUZ) HARBOUR FROM 13:00 ONWARD. Overnight - Dubrovnik Harbour

Days 2 - 3:

Dubrovnik – Korcula – Hvar. As our boat sets sail, the coming week will be filled with island hopping, swimming, sunbathing and relaxing with like minded travellers. In addition to a beautiful views from on deck, you'll enjoy a freshly prepared breakfast and lunch and visit a range of different ports each day. As the sun sets, the world is your oyster; explore the day's port of call and discover a local restaurant or bistro and sample Croatia's incredible gastronomy and fine wines.

Stopping at the islands of Hvar and Korcula, both are among some of the most important wine growing regions in Croatia. Korcula, an island renowned for its long maritime history and is the reputed birthplace of the great explorer Marco Polo. It is possible to climb the tower, which was said to be his home. It is also one of the most charming and romantic of the 1000 or so islands off the Adriatic coast. Ancient medieval walls surround hidden treasures; you will find architectural delights, including Renaissance palaces, cathedrals, museums and plenty more gems tucked away in its network of old cobbled streets. On day 3, sail to the little island of Scedro for a dip, before continuing to the sunshine island of Hvar. The city of Hvar offers plenty of restaurants, cafes and bars, open long into the night! Overnight - onboard

Days 4 - 5:

Hvar – Trstenik – Mljet. Setting sail we cruise to the little town of Trstenik on Peljesac Peninsula. Viniculture is popular here and the famous Dingac wine is worth a taste. On day 5, sail to the verdant green island of Mljet, where you can opt for a dip in one of the crystal clear inland lakes or visit the small 12th century Benedictine monastery. A little over half the island is devoted as National Park offering pleasant scenery and is easily navigated by bicycles and motorized scooters, all available for hire by the harbour front. At dinner time try one of the seafood restaurants along the waterfront or any one of the tiny local village kavarnas (taverns) throughout the island. Overnight - onboard

Day 6:

Mljet – Sipan Island. Cruising to the Elafiti Islands, the anchor will be dropped at one of the smaller islands, offering the opportunity to swim and snorkel in azure blue waters. Sipan, the biggest island, is our choice of port tonight. Overnight - onboard

Day 7:

Sipan Island – Dubrovnik. We cruise south along the coast back to Dubrovnik, the Pearl of the Adriatic. Arriving into Dubrovnik early this morning, the day is free for you to further explore the impressive old city or take one final dip in the sea. Overnight - onboard

POSTCARDS:

Here's what some of our past travellers have written in to us and said about their experiences on this trip.

Hi Mark, I just wanted to drop you a quick email with feedback for the sailing trip. I had an absolutely amazing time and everyone was thrilled to pieces with the standard of accommodation. Realising later that we had received an upgrade to a premium boat was a wonderful surprise too and many thanks for that. I have no complaints whatsoever and would recommend it in a heartbeat to anyone. We all had an incredible time and I'd like to thank everyone at On The Go for their time and patience with helping me organise this unforgettable experience. THANK YOU!

Hi Jane, Just got back from Croatia on Sunday and wanted to say thanks for organising it for me. The trip was great, from the other passengers to the crew and especially the food on board. I would definitely recommend the trip to friends. I had a great time, I was very proud of myself I actually jumped off the boat, which considering I hate water and swimming was a first for me! I even have a photo to prove it. Erin

Erin Faulkner, Sep 2010

Dear On the Go, I don't usually write letters regarding my previous travels, but this time I couldn't resist. I really had a great time on the tour! Everything from the beginning till the last day was perfect, every day full of surprises! I can't find words good enough to describe the Old Town of Dubrovnik. Walking down the marble-paved streets with hundreds of cozy restaurants was incredible. I wish we could have spent a couple more days there. All the crew on-board were so friendly and helpful, and the chef not only prepared delicious food, but also was the soul of every party! I met some great people who i hope to stay in touch with and maybe go on another On the Go tour with them! Thank you!
