A very Indian Adventure 15 days

Day 1: Arrival into Delhi

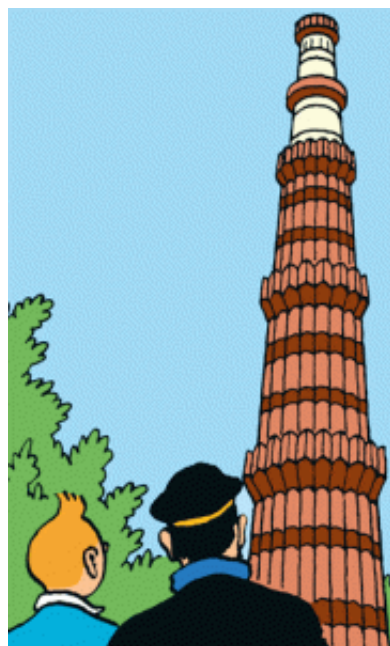

Delhi: Hello India! Tintin and Haddock walked the tarmac – but today it’s an aerobridge for your first taste of modern India. Suitably garlanded, we drive to our hotel with the rest of the day free to acclimatise and recoup from your flight. Overnight - Old Delhi

Day 2: Old Delhi

Ambling through the historic old city you’ll see a few sites familiar to Tintin and the captain – most notably the famous Red Fort. Other highlights include the Qutab Minar, Jama Masjid and a rickshaw ride to lively Chore Bazaar. Overnight - Old Delhi

Day 3: On to Agra

Chug out of the Delhi morning mists on the train to Agra, home to the exquisite Taj Mahal , one of the 7 wonders of the modern world. We’ll visit Agra Fort, with magnificent views across to the Taj and watch the town’s Pacchikari marble producers in action. Overnight - Agra

Day 4:

It’s a sunrise visit to the Taj Mahal when it is most spectacular. Then prepare for an eventful drive, dodging holy cows no doubt, to the haunting Mughal capital of Fatehpur Sikri. Late this afternoon we pull into Ranthambhore National Park, formerly the hunting grounds of the Maharaja of Jaipur, and settle down for a night in the jungle. Overnight - Ranthambhore NP

Day 5: Tiger Country!

Tiger spotting! Dawn and dusk game drives. We’ll hope for a calmer encounter with our stripy friend than Tintin’s narrow escape with a man eater! Overnight - Ranthambhore NP

Day 6: The Pink City

A 5-hour drive to the famous pink city of Jaipur and a free afternoon to explore this charming city, a real favourite amongst travellers to India. Tintin donned a turban and so shall ye – a bit of fun over dinner together tonight! Overnight - Jaipur

Day 7: Jaipur

Sidestep any water spraying trunks as we ascend the 11th century Amber fort on elephant back early this morning. Then to the City Palace – taking us back to the grand old days of Maharaja Gaipajama. Dodging the hypnotic gaze of any fakirs, we might be lucky enough to come across a snake charmer as we explore the colourful city markets. Overnight - Jaipur

Day 8:

Following in Tintin’s footsteps we board the train to Ajmer and then drive on to the majestic ‘blue’ city of Jodhpur located right by the edge of the Thar Desert. Overnight - Jodhpur

Day 9: The Blue City

A very Indian Adventure 15 days

Discover the sites of this charming Rajasthani city including the mighty Meherangarh fort and lively textile bazaars set around the old towns' clock tower. Overnight - Jodhpur

Day 10: The Rajasthan Desert

Manvar: For a special treat we drive to the desert camp of Manvar – literally in the middle of nowhere. Mop the sweat off your brow and hope for an imminent oasis as we trek by camel over dusty desert dunes – you'll truly feel part of the script of Tintin's many adventures! Safely back at camp under stars of the expansive night sky, we light a bonfire over dinner to the sounds of local musicians. Overnight - Manvar

Day 11: New Delhi

Flying back to modern civilisation, dinner tonight will be at one of Delhi's specialty Indian restaurants – a stark contrast to our recent foray in the Rajasthani wilderness. Overnight - New Delhi

Day 12: The Himalayan Foothills

Anticipating a safer landing than Tintin's into the stunning Himalayan foothills, we explore the summer capital of the Raj, Shimla, on foot, dropping in at the India Coffee House, which has been going since colonial times. Overnight - Shimla

Day 13: Shimla

Take in the fresh mountain air and breath-taking Himalayan vistas draped in pine, rhododendron, and oak – it's a free day to explore Shimla as you wish. Overnight - Shimla

Day 14:

We ride along UNESCO's world heritage listed narrow gauge railway to Kalka, meandering our way through the Himalayan foothills. Fortunately, there's no derailments and precarious car chases this time! And it's back to Delhi on one of India's more modern express trains. Overnight - New Delhi

Day 15: New Delhi

Bid farewell to the land of Maharajas – it's time to be transferred to the international airport for our flight back home.
