

Flights to the final frontier

IF you think you're a hardened traveller who has been everywhere and seen everything, this is the trip for you.

Bespoke holiday specialists On the Go has launched trips to outer space.

Forget the pyramids, the Coliseum or the Great Wall of China – this is the best view you will see in your life.

For £14,979 per person, On the Go will take tourists to the final frontier in a MIG-29.

It's one of the most advanced aircraft in the Russian Air Force.

Before the flight, travellers will be medically tested for the G-force and given special instructions on how to use the breathing equipment for the 30-minute flight.

Take off is from a military airbase in Nizhny Novgorod, near Moscow.
