ITINERARY

Day 1 : Kochi

Saturday. Welcome to India! You'll be met at the airport and transferred to our hotel. This evening we'll watch a traditional Kathakali dance performance. Admire the colourful costumes and make-up of the performers as we enjoy the show. Overnight - Kochi

Days 2-3 : Kochi sightseeing & Munnar

Kochi - Munnar. On the morning of day 2 we enjoy a guided tour of the Fort Kochi neighbourhood. See elegant Chinese fishing nets and explore the winding streets of the old town. We visit the European-influenced St Francis Church, see the Parsi Synagogue and a Dutch palace. After the tour we continue to Munnar - a town and hill station nestled in beautiful scenery and surrounded by tea plantations.

On day 3 we take a guided walk through one of these tea plantations and visit a local market, before the rest of the day is free to explore. Perhaps pay a visit to the stunning Eravikulam National Park (closed Jan - Mar). The park is home to endangered species including tigers, sambar deer and the Nilgiri ibex - found only in this part of the world.

Overnight - Munnar (B:2, D:2)

Captivating Kerala

Day 4 : Kerala backwaters

Munnar - Alleppey - Kerala Backwaters. Today we take a scenic 4-5 hour drive to Alleppey and board our private rice boat for a cruise along the Kerala Backwaters, a chain of lakes and lagoons running parallel to the Arabian Sea coast. Palm trees and local villages line the shores and we watch the sunset onboard as we sail. Enjoy a delicious dinner, cooked with local fresh produce by the onboard chef.
Overnight - Deluxe rice boat (B, L, D)

Days 5-6 : Kumarakom

Kerala Backwaters - Kumarakom. On the morning of day 5 we disembark the rice boat at Kumarakom, built on a cluster of islands in Lake Vembanad - one of Asia's largest freshwater lakes. Enjoy two days at leisure in this vibrant region and watch as local fishermen go to work in their small vallams (fishing boats). The nearby Kumarakom Bird Sanctuary is also worth a visit - it's home to many species and is an important stopover for migratory birds, including the critically endangered Siberian Crane.
Overnight - Kumarakom (B:2)

Day 7 : Kochi

Kumarakom - Kochi. Friday. This morning we return to Kochi, where our tour ends with a departure transfer to the airport.

Please note: Flights from Kochi should depart after 2pm.(B)
