Meet Me in Myanmar

visiting the Sule Pagoda, which is a peaceful place to retreat from the bustle of the city. The pagoda is near Maha Bandoola Park which is encircled by a host of colonial buildings and heritage sites, including Independence Monument and the High Court. We also see the hollow, golden Botahtaung Pagoda before lunch at the Yangon Tea House, which is reminiscent of the grand tea houses of colonial times and serves a delicious cup of traditional tea.

After lunch we take a stroll around the colourful Bogyoke (Scott) Market, which sells an array of goods, including gemstones, handicrafts and clothes. After some retail therapy we visit the giant 70 metre-long reclining Buddha of Chaukhtagyī Paya at Chaukhtagyī Pagoda, which has a crown encrusted in diamonds and other precious stones.

Later this evening we enjoy an excursion to the most revered Buddhist temple in Myanmar, the magnificent Shwedagon Pagoda. Standing at 90 metres tall, the gold leaf central stupa dominates the city's skyline and turns vivid hues of yellow, orange and red when the sun begins to set. Overnight - Yangon (B, L)

Day 3 : Mandalay & Mahagandayon Monastery

Yangon – Mandalay. This morning we fly to Mandalay, Myanmar's last royal capital. On the outskirts of Mandalay is the ancient city of Amarapura, a former capital of Myanmar which is rich in sights. Here we visit the largest teaching monastery in the country, the Mahagandayon Monastery. Hundreds of monks from the monastery queue to receive their daily alms from the people.

Travelling into the city we explore the Royal Palace and see the teak carvings on the historic Shwenandaw Monastery. We also have the opportunity to visit a local handicraft workshop to see bronze sculpting, gold leaf marking and wood carving, before spending the afternoon at leisure. This evening we visit the world's largest book at the Kuthodaw Pagoda and our day concludes at Mandalay Hill, where we hope to enjoy a spectacular sunset, with vistas across the city. Overnight - Mandalay (B)

Day 4 : Mingun & U-bein bridge

This morning we enjoy a cruise up the Irrawaddy River to Mingun where we visit the remains of what could have been the world's largest pagoda and the mighty Mingun Bell. Intended to reach a staggering height of 152 metres, work on the pagoda stopped after the death of King Bodawpaya in 1819. Dramatically split by an earthquake in 1838, the monumental structure is still incredibly impressive.

Travelling on to Sagaing Hill we take in the spectacular views over the river and the rolling hills, which are studded with pagodas and stupas. On top of the hill is the ancient Swan Oo Pon Nya Shin pagoda and we see the remarkable Thirty Caves Pagoda and the Kaungmudaw Pagoda.

Returning to ancient Amarapura, which is famous for its textile industry, we see how traditional fabrics are woven at a cottage industry workshop, before our final stop of the day at the famous U Bein Bridge. U Bein is the longest teak bridge in the world, set over the enchanting Taungthaman Lake. Here we have the wonderful opportunity to see the bridge in all its glory at sunset, which is a photographer's dream. Overnight - Mandalay (B)

Day 5 : Irrawaddy River Cruise to Bagan

Mandalay - Bagan. Transferring to the jetty this morning we board the MGRG express riverboat that plies the Irrawaddy from Mandalay to Bagan. The journey takes approx 9 hours where you'll be treated to breathtaking views interrupted only by scenes of everyday life as family fishing boats pass and children wave from the shore. Upon arrival to Bagan hotel check in and free time this evening.

Please be sure to pack something warm for the boat trip, hat and sunscreen. Seating is provided on the main deck, outdoors though fully shaded. You'll be sitting in a relaxed style cane chair for the trip and you may wish to consider packing a chair cushion for extra comfort. You can also get up and walk around the boat whenever you choose.

Please note: Between 01 Apr and 31 July each year the water level of the river is at its lowest which prevents cruises from operating. These dates do vary depending upon rainfall and the amount of water coming down the river. If travelling with us during this time a flight between Mandalay - Bagan replaces the cruise. Day 5 arrangements during this period are morning at leisure in Mandalay before transferring to Mandalay Airport to board the 30 minute flight to Nyaung Oo Airport and transfer to Bagan where we spend the night. Please also note that only breakfast is included when we fly to Bagan, lunch and dinner is excluded. Overnight - Bagan (B, L)

We stop for a photo opportunity at the towering Thatbyinnyu Temple before visiting the gigantic Dhammayangyi Temple and the Mingalarzedi Pagoda, the last of the large pagodas built in the 13th century, representing the pinnacle of Bagan's architectural skills. Health Requirements

You should seek medical advice before travelling to Myanmar from your local health practitioner and ensure that you receive all of the appropriate vaccinations. As a guide Diphtheria, Hepatitis A, Typhoid, Polio and Tetanus are strongly recommended.

Malaria in Myanmar

Areas with Malaria: Present in rural areas throughout the country with altitudes of 1000m or more. None in the cities of Mandalay and Yangon. Estimated relative risk of malaria for travellers is moderate.

Water

As tap water is not safe to drink in Myanmar, only drink bottled mineral water which is readily available in hotels, shops and restaurants. You should also avoid salads which may be washed in unhygienic water.

Groups & Guiding

Our longest tour in Myanmar is Best of Myanmar & Beach - 14 day tour. All other tours in Myanmar are sectors of this longer tour. All our Myanmar trips operate together from day 1 - day 7, then from day 7 some in your tour group may leave and others continue on. Our Yangon city stay travellers will also join our tour arrangements of day 1 and day 2.

Climate

Myanmar has a monsoon climate with three main seasons. The hottest period is between February and May, with little or no rain. Rainy season is generally from May to October, with dry, cooler weather from October to February.

Time & Voltage

The voltage in Myanmar is 220-240 Volts AC. Most of the international hotels have their own generators. Other places may experience power cuts and voltage fluctuation so it's best to pack a voltage regulator or stabilizer to protect electrical items. In Myanmar there are 3 types of plugs are commonly accepted: 2 round pin European plug (type C), 2 fat round pins (type F) and the 3 fat round pin Indian plus (type D) plug. To cover all bases, it is best to pack an international travel adaptor!

Myanmar is 6.5 hours ahead of Greenwich Mean Time (GMT).

Currency

The official currency in Myanmar is the Myanmar Kyat.

Euro, British Pounds, US Dollars and other major currencies can be exchanged locally at the airport, bureau to changes and banks. However, the official rate is often very different to the market rate and some exchange booths (especially at the airport) offer a very poor rate. We recommend you wait until meeting our representative or your tour guide for advise on the best places to exchange. Alternatively ATMS can be found in all major towns and cities, allowing you to withdraw Myanmar Kyat.

If exchanging US dollars please note that any notes that are old, torn or marked will not be accepted. We recommend taking new US dollars bills. Pre-2006 dollar bills or ones with the letters AB and CB at the start of the serial number (at the top left corner of note) are unlikely to be accepted.

It's advisable to request bank notes in smaller denominations, as it can sometimes be hard to get change from large notes and smaller notes are handy for smaller purchases and gratuities. Traveller's Cheques are not recommended as they're often difficult to exchange and incur high fees.
